

Tuesday, 15 March 2022

Health and Social Wellbeing Improvement

This resource explains why smoking while pregnant is harmful for both mother and baby, highlights the health effects of passive smoking after birth and provides advice to help women stop smoking, including information about nicotine replacement therapy (NRT).

Details

Format

20 page 12cm x 12cm booklet

Target group

Pregnant smokers

Downloads

Attachment

Size

Give your baby a breather booklet 01.22.pdf 4.65 MB

Tags

- smoke
- smoking
- baby
- quit
- stop
- cigarette
- birth
- mother
- parent
- pregnancy

Print