

Wednesday, 24 January 2024

Health and Social Wellbeing Improvement

This booklet provides new safety information on the preparation and storage of infant formula milk and is aimed at minimising the risk of infection from bacteria that may sometimes be present in the milk powder. It explains how to sterilise feeding equipment and make up formula milk, and highlights the safety precautions that need to be observed. Note page 6 has the latest guidance on sterilising up to at least 12 months.

Details

Format

16 page, A5, booklet

Target group

New parents who have chosen to bottlefeed their baby

Downloads

Attachment	Size
Bottlefeeding Final 0124.pdf	520.76 KB

Tags

- Bottlefeeding
- breastfeeding
- Infants

Print