

Thursday, 06 July 2023

Health and Social Wellbeing Improvement

Nutrition Webinars

SCAN ME

SUBSCRIBE to Public Health Dietitians on YouTube

	What is it about?	Who is it for?
	Healthy eating and lifestyle tips for weight management.	People living with overweight or obesity
	Healthy eating advice for during the perimenopause and menopause	Perimenopausal/ menopausal women
	Basic diet and lifestyle tips for a healthy, happy gut	General public
	Explore the links between what you eat and how you feel	General public
	General healthy eating advice and practical tips based on the Eatwell Guide	General public
	Good nutrition for the later years including practical advice.	Older adults / family members or friends/carers
	The basic fundamentals of sports nutrition to help fuel correctly & enhance performance.	Active/sporty individuals
	Tips to eat more sustainably to benefit health and the environment	General public
	This webinar "busts" some of the most common myths about food - butter, coconut oil, sweeteners, honey etc.	General public
	Top tips for meal planning, cooking, budgeting and savvy shopping to save money on your food shop.	General public

A series of free 30 minute webinars developed by Registered Dietitians and Nutritionists.

HSC Health and Social Care | Public Health Dietitians Group | HSC Public Health Agency
Project supported by the PHA

This flyer was produced by the Public Health Dietitians Group (PHDG) Northern Ireland in partnership with the PHA. The flyer publicises nutrition webinars that have been developed by registered nutritionists and dietitians, on behalf of the PHA, to support healthier eating for various audiences across Northern Ireland.

Details

Format

A4 2 pages

Target group

General public, healthcare professionals

Downloads

Attachment*Size

Nutrition Webinar Flyers PHDG.pdf 5.02 MB

Tags

- nutrition
- healthy eating
- dietetics

Print