

Self-harm Registry data, N. Ireland 2018/19

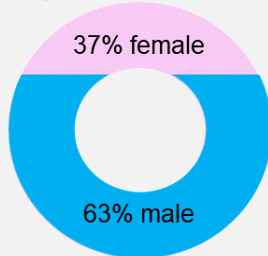

14,645

attendances at Emergency Departments for self-harm and/or ideation*

9,242 self-harm presentations

5,403 ideation presentations

2%

Of all Type 1 & 2 ED hospital attendances

35%

Admitted to general hospital

44% attendances between 10pm and 9am

6%

attendances were homeless

9%

attendances were under 18 years old

4%

attendances leave ED before seen by a clinician

Alcohol involved in 44% of self-harm and 45% of ideation attendances

1 in 5

Self-harm repeat attendance rate

Females

Self-harm rates highest among 15-19 year olds

Males

Self-harm rates highest among 20-24 year olds

Since 2012/13...

Self-harm attendance rate increased by

8%

Attendance rate for self-harm increased among females by 9%

Male rate increased by

6%

% of self-harm presentations involving drug overdose decreased by 12%

Involvement of alcohol in self-harm attendances decreased by 7%

*Ideation includes thoughts of self-harm and / or suicide, where no physical act has taken place.